KAMER

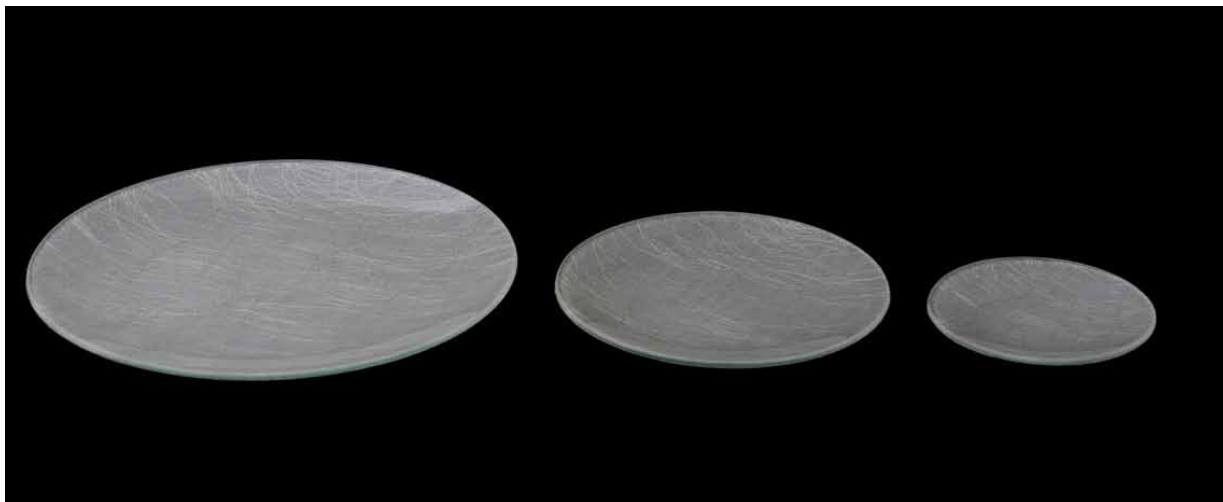

Maker:
Emura Shoten

Since: 1917
Specialty: Textile/glass

EMURA SHOTEN has been a wholesaler of a variety of kimono textile collected from all over Japan, such as Nishijin-ori (woven silk fabric from Kyoto), Kyo-yuzen (dyed fabric from Kyoto) and Tsumugi (a soft woven fabric from Kagoshima and Ibaraki). Besides producing their original textiles by special weaving techniques, EMURA SHOTEN has also explored innovative ways of using traditional textiles. Their creativity resulted in their latest products combined with glass. Yuzen and Nishijin dish are elegant glass dishes in which a sheet of kimono fabric is applied on the layers of glass.
